Man Gives Way in Another Quarter

Women have taken to polo, soccer and other sports which have heretofore been considered for men exclusively. Man has also considered chess a game too deep for the feminine intellect, but here you see a tournament held in London for women only. Mrs. M. Stollas (left) and Mrs. R. Stevenson in the foreground.

Mother, Dad, and Matty

Christy Mathewson back home with mother and dad at Factoryville, Pa. That happiness in every line of their faces is due to Matty's victory over the white plague.

To Prevent Sea Disasters

C. S. Henslee, Chattanooga, Tenn., has invented a device to prevent sinking of ships which have been rammed or torpedoed. With the model above he shows how a rubber-edged steel cap is drawn against the hole by the suction of the water, the row of cone-shaped cups acting as a guide.

To Wed Again?

Queen

Will wedding bells soon ring again for Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, former wife of Harold McCormick who recently married Ganna Walska? She wouldn't answer that question when this photograph was taken as she gorged along a Chicago street.

Miss Ruth Andrea will be "Miss Brighton" at the national bathing beauty contest at Atlantic City in September. She was chosen queen of queens of the various beaches at Brighton Beach, N.Y.
